MRS. HERBERT BAILEY

Mother of Five Tells Favorite Family Recipes

Mrs. Hubert Bailey of 4502 Merrill St., who describes her hobby as "trying to keep up with five active children and the league standing of the L. A. Dodgers for my husband," may not list her hobby as cooking, but with a family of seven, she spends a good deal of time in her kitchen.

Recently installed for the second term as president of Sepulveda PTA, Mrs. Bailey is a member of the South Bay Christian Church in Redondo Beach.

Born in Cincinnati, Iowa, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Exlins, now of Hermosa Beach, the Sepulveda PTA president was raised in Brookfield, Mo. She came to Southern California in 1947, six years after her marriage to Hubert Bailey. The Baileys have resided in Torrance for the past three years.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Bailey later this month to Missouri, where Mrs. Bailey will attend the first reunion of her graduating class while the family enjoys a vacation, will be the five Bailey children: Bill, 16½; Joanna, 12½; Bernard, 11; Michael, 7, and David, 4½.

Favorite recipes of the five little Baileys are Hungarian Goulash—Bailey Style, and Pineapple Upside Down Cake.

Pineapple Upside Down Cake

- | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 4 egg yolks | 1 teaspoon baking powder |
| 1½ cups sugar | ¼ teaspoon salt |
| ½ cup sifted flour | 4 stiff beaten egg whites |
| | Topping |
| ½ cup butter | ¼ cup halved maraschino cherries |
| 1 cup brown sugar | |
| 1 cup crushed pineapple | |

Beat egg yolks until thick. Gradually add sugar and beat. Add pineapple juice and mix well. Add sifted flour with the baking powder and salt. Mix thoroughly. Fold in stiff beaten egg whites into batter gently.

In iron skillet melt butter. Add brown sugar and mix. Stir in crushed pineapple and dot with maraschino cherries. Pour batter over brown sugar mixture in skillet. Bake at 325 degrees for 1 hour.

Hungarian Goulash -- Bailey Style

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------|
| 1 pound ground beef | ¾ pound macaroni |
| 1 onion (diced) | 1 2½ size can tomatoes |
| 1 small can sliced mushrooms | Salt to taste |
- Saute onion in small amount of Wesson oil. Brown ground beef in onions. Add tomatoes and let simmer 15 minutes. Add this to the cooked macaroni and add mushrooms. Simmer for 45 minutes, adding water if necessary. Serve with a green salad and French bread.

Mrs. Bratt Feted At Farewell Party

A surprise farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warf of 353 Avenida, Hollywood Riviera, Saturday, May 30 in honor of Mrs. Robert (Gwen) Bratt of 1609 Via Zurita, who left yesterday by jet for New York and London.

Guests included Messrs. and Mmes. John Solvason, Henry Dixon, Don Santucci, Fred Boyer, Jack Hughes, Al J. Dallen-dorfer, and Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Clark. A buffet supper was served.

Mildred went with this boy for two years. He's 20. A couple weeks ago he stopped coming over. At first she said he was getting "too difficult to handle." Then she broke down and told me the truth — she's four months along. I asked if he knew and she said "Yes." When I inquired what he intended to do about it, she said "nothing."

I told her to phone him at once and tell him we wanted to talk to him. He promised to come over that night but he didn't show up. The next morning I telephoned his mother. She got hysterical "No tramp is going to ruin my boy's life" and slammed down the receiver. My husband has tried to contact the boy's father. He's always "out of town."

Why should Mildred have to face this alone? The boy is as much to blame as she is. We think they should be married right away. Can we force it through the law? What advice do you have for us?—HEART-BROKEN

Dear Heartbroken: Laws vary according to the state, but in NO state, can a marriage be forced. And why would you want to force this marriage anyway? Mildred has enough trouble without being permanently shackled to a fellow who doesn't want her. If you think it's tough to be an unwed mother, plenty of women will testify that it's worse to be a despised wife.

You need a lawyer. In some states the boy is responsible for the support of his out-of-wedlock child. Check immediately.

Dear Ann: I'm a girl 16 who is at the end of my string with my 14-year old sloppy sister. She and I share a room and it's always a mess because of her. I try to keep my clothes hung up and my personal belongings where they ought to be.

The record player is in our room and I'm ashamed to bring my friends in because the room always looks so horrible. Mom says to settle it between ourselves. I've done everything but get on my knees. Nothing helps. Do you have a suggestion? — PIG'S ROOMMATE

If Sloppy Liz is 14 and still hasn't discovered clothes hangers, you're not going to change her. Offer to trade chores. In exchange for keeping her share of the bedroom neat, let her rinse your hose, clean the sink or vacuum the rugs.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lisman of 1503 Post Ave., returned home last weekend from Washington, D.C. where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abouchauer.

Eastern Star Honors Dead

Highlighting a meeting of the Eastern Star, which took place at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening, May 28, was a Memorial Service honoring the late Alice Mort and Lucie Lund, held in observance of Memorial Day.

A white rose was placed on the altar by Worthy Matron Bettina Miller in their memory.

Preceding the memorial service the De Molay Chapter of Torrance exemplified the "Mother's Degree," and John Pennington, worthy patron, addressed the chapter.

Lois Sherwood was chairman of the evening.

Past patrons and past matrons who were given escort included Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, Jeannette Clark, Jack Miller, Garnett Satterfield, and Grace Herd.
